HEBER'S BACK STREET HISTORY

(Sixth South - (Main to 5th East))

In early days, after the Indian Peace Treaty of 20 Aug 1867; the Ute Indians used to come into town and camp on the corner (South East) of the intersection of Main Street and 6th South in the sage brush. The property was later owned by the James W Clyde Family.

These Indians would race their ponies from that corner east to fifth east against the white men on their ponies.

Most usually, the Indians would win thses contests.

There also used to be a log barn on the Cardwell Clegg corner, behind his home on 87 East 500 South.

In later years, _____ this barn was moved from there, up east date along sixth south and along "Call Lane", to the Mill Lane on the South West corner of Mill Lane and "Call Lane": (Note: Call Lane was 6th South from Harold Christensens=5th East and East to Mill Lane.)
